

BABSCon 2022

Just a Friendly Reminder

Masks and Social Distancing

Everyone at BABSCon 2022 will be required to wear a mask that fully covers the nose and mouth at all times except while eating, drinking, or being on stage as part of a panel or performance (though they may naturally still wear masks on stage if they choose to). Medical-grade (i.e. N95) masks are preferred, but surgical or cloth masks are acceptable. Gaiters are not acceptable. Respirators that only filter incoming air—releasing outgoing air unfiltered—are also not acceptable.

Please maintain a six-foot distance from others not in your "bubble" where possible, or maximize distance when six feet is not feasible.

Accessibility

Here at BABSCon, we are committed to accommodating the accessibility needs of our attendees. Throughout your attendance at our event, we hope to provide many forms of accommodation. This page explains some of those accommodations, but we acknowledge that we may not have covered specific issues/concerns that you may have. If you require an accommodation not mentioned on this page, please feel free to contact us at conaccess@BABSCon.com. If you have arrived at the convention and find yourself concerned, please come to our Accessibility Table located near the Registration Table.

Service Dog Etiquette For Attendees

-  Service dogs are working dogs! Please don't distract them from their work!
-  Never pet a service dog without asking first. If you distract the dog, they can't help their human!
-  Be considerate that sometimes you can't pet a service dog while they are working. Their jobs are very important!
-  If you have your own dog, steer clear of working service dogs. Doggy play dates are for another day!

For Dog Handlers

-  Remember the three strikes rule! Sometimes your dog needs a break too!

We at BABSCon welcome all attendees and their helpers! If you have any questions, please visit the Accessibility Desk. Have fun!

Letter from the Chair

Welcome back, everypony!

Weird timeline we find ourselves in, isn't it? It's been rough, but we're here to share the magic of friendship.

This weekend would not be possible without the staffers who volunteered their time, energy, and talent to make it happen. Some have been around from start to finish, others for a brief quest, but each and every one of them have been invaluable. From coast to coast and across the pond, many hands, hooves, paws, and claws pulled together and created BABSCon 2022

It's been a long time coming, and we're excited to finally share it with you!

The BABSCon 2022 Chairs

Daniel 'Sunstone' Fouts & Jessica 'Willow Wisp' McCormick

Dear BABSCon,

It's been a turbulent past 3 years. It was weird having to do everything online. Anyways, to keep this short enough to fit into the conbook spot I purchased, I just wanted to say "thank you." Thank you to all of you who came out, supported our con, our vendors and our charities. I know that it's not been easy for many of us, but to finally make it here and to see all of you has made it worth it. Whatever this weekend brings, we'll get through it together. This community was built on friendship and we hope we helped those friendships grow this weekend. I appreciate you reading this. This isn't an ad as much as it is an appreciation post to everyone here.

Enjoy the memories you make this BABS and every BABS.

-The BABSCon Staffer

P.S. By the way, thank you for coming to BABS 2022 :)

BABSCon Guests of Honor 2022

Nicole Oliver has worked for over twenty-five years as an actor, producer, and director. In that time, she's been nominated by her peers for several Leo Awards and has won the UBCP/ACTRA award for Best Voice for her work in animation. While she's most familiar to bronies as Princess Celestia, Cheerilee, Tree Hugger, and more in the My Little Pony franchise, she's voiced many animated programs including Littlest Pet Shop, Tom and Jerry, and the LEGO and Barbie franchises. Nicole also boasts an impressive on-screen résumé, with characters like Rebecca on Nancy Drew and Helen Atkins on NarcoLeap, plus appearances Arrow, Supernatural, and many more.

To call Grey DeLisle-Griffin "voice acting royalty" is, frankly, an understatement. She's one of the all-time greats. A full list of her roles would take over this whole page. From icons like Daphne in Scooby-Doo (whose mantle she inherited from her mentor in 2000) and Azula in Avatar: The Last Airbender to starring turns like Mandy in The Grim Adventures of Billy & Mandy, evil babysitter Vickie against Tara Strong's Timmy Turner in Fairly OddParents, Queen Padmé in Star Wars: Clone Wars, she's done it all. More recently, she's become the go-to VA for both Carol Danvers/Captain Marvel in Marvel's animated projects and Wonder Woman in DC's—including Lauren Faust's DC Super Hero Girls, starring alongside her BFF and ours, Tara Strong. Now that's power. She's also recently played Lana, Lola, and Lily Loud in The Loud House, Ms. Chalice on The Cuphead Show!, Monster Girl & Shrinking Rae on Invincible, Lady Briarwood on The Legend of Vox Machina, Queen Moon Butterfly in Star vs. the Forces of Evil, and Puppycorn in Unikitty (opposite Tara again). Oh, yeah, and she's also an accomplished musician and stand-up comedian.

Vincent Tong started performing in musicals such as Mamma Mia!, West Side Story, Grease, and Beauty & the Beast. After appearing in film and TV shows such as Arrow, Fringe, Flashpoint, and the Transporter series, he finally realized his dream of becoming a cartoon character, winning lead roles on Lego Ninjago, Lego Jurassic World, Mega Man: Fully Charged, Death Note, My Little Pony, Giganotosaurus, Bob The Builder, Super Monsters, The Deep, Hatchimals, Polly Pocket, Llama Llama, and many more. He has also voice directed award-winning video games for Klei Entertainment. Vincent is a four-time Leo Award nominee, and a five-time UBCP Award nominee.

Elley-Ray Hennessy has been traversing the stages, film sets, television and radio studios for over 40 years, delighting audiences worldwide. Her talent and compassion to share it are unparalleled. Currently, Elley voices delightful characters on My Little Pony, The Becky and Bagel Show, Corn & Peg, Hotel Transylvania, Cyber chase, and Arthur, with some surprises coming up that may or may not include the letter "G" and the number "5." Elley has published two books of inspiration: Fly With Eagles and Butterfly Kisses by Salt River Publishing (available on Amazon), and is writing a new animated series property (NDA).

Peter New is a writer, actor and voice actor with well over 100 professional credits. Besides playing playing Doctor Whooves, Big Macintosh, Goldie Delicious and nearly 40 others on My Little Pony: Friendship is Magic, New has also voiced Sunil Nevla and almost 70 more characters on Littlest Pet Shop, as well as voices in Chuck's Choice, Megaman: Fully Charged, Saving Goolie, Dinosaur Train, Tobots, Inuyasha, and, most recently, Ninjago, to name a few. On camera, he's done everything from baring his chest for Daphne in Scooby Doo Too: Monsters Unleashed to tazing himself in Jim Henson's Turkey Hollow to stuttering in The Imaginarium of Doctor Parnassus to attempting "to get away with it" in Supernatural's crossover episode, "Scoobynatural." He wrote the multiple-award-winning short film, WoodMan, in which he also starred and the utterly absurd radio-play-style podcast, Voyage of the Deeverwal, in which he plays Columbus, Hodding Vermeer, and others. Look for his next project soon, a feature film called Con of the Dead. He likes milk chocolate, single malt scotch, sunny evenings, and traveling.

Devyn Dalton is a Canadian born actor, dancer, and stunt performer known for her motion capture performance roles and voice work. She also continues to perform in dance and theatre throughout Canada and Worldwide. Devyn is known to MLP fans as Ocellus on My Little Pony: Friendship is Magic, but her other voice roles include Shasa on Beyblade Burst and Zia in Barbie's Rock 'n' Royal Movie, among others. She's also done some amazing work on-camera, in motion-capture, and doing stunts. She played Cornelius in War for the Planet of the Apes, Cornelia in Rise of the Planet of the Apes, and has done stunt work for Stephen Spielberg in The BFG, all over the Arrowverse, in A Series of Unfortunate Events, Resident Alien, among others.

On camera, you may know her as Púca in DC's Legends of Tomorrow, the Angriest Boy in the World on Legion, and as Tabby in Netflix's Hypnotic.

Brian Doe Chua began his career as "Brian Doe", he decided to make an addition to his last name to honor the Chinese side of his heritage. In adopting his mother's maiden name as part of his professional identity, he is embracing another side of himself. Working as a voice actor for over a decade, Brian has been part of a wide variety of projects. He's perhaps best-known for lending his voice to the characters of Timber Spruce in the My Little Pony: Equestria Girls universe, Osamu Mikumo in World Trigger, Gabe Brunai and Katana Sakaki in Beyblade Burst, and many more. Brian has also been developing a portfolio of live action work that includes the FOX TV series Wayward Pines, and the CW's Supergirl to go along with various independent film projects that can be seen at film festivals around the world.

BABSCon Guests of Honor 2022:

Andy Price is one of the very few creators who worked on all the My Little Pony: Friendship (and FIENDship) is Magic comics from issue #1 to the final issue, the end of the amazing "Season 10" arc. To list Andy's credits individually would be a fool's errand. As we said, drew Friendship is Magic #1 and has continued through to the end, including Micro-Series, Friends Forever, FIENDship is Magic, Equestria Girls, the Holiday Special, the Movie Prequel and Season 10. Outside of MLP, he's also conuted art to such wildly varying titles as Star Trek: Waypoint and John Carpenter's Tales for a HalloweenNight, among others.

Jeremy Whitley is an avid comic book fan who has the good fortune of also being a writer of comic books and graphic novels. He enjoys doing that. He also has a hard time talking about himself, which is why this bio exists. To give him a hard time. His wife is currently typing this, grilling him about things to add to his bio, and generally giving him a hard time. His wife enjoys doing that. So do his two daughters. Jeremy is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and calls Durham, NC home. He also happens to enjoy writing comic books and graphic novels for kids of all ages and, besides working on Princeless and Raven: The Pirate Princess, he has also written for Marvel, IDW, Titan, and Dynamite.

Dana Claire Simpson, a native of Gig Harbor, Washington, first caught the eyes of devoted comics readers with the internet strip Ozy and Millie. After winning the 2009 Comic Strip Superstar contest, she developed the strip Phoebe and Her Unicorn (originally known as Heavenly Nostrils), which is now syndicated in news papers worldwide, has fourteen book collections, two graphic novels, and more, and is being adapted into an animated series by Nickelodeon! Ozy and Millie have two books of their own, too.. Dana's books have appeared on the New York Times bestseller list, and won the Washington State Book Award and the Pacific Northwest Book Award. She lives with her spouse and her cat in Santa Barbara, California.

Sabrina Cotugno is a director, writer, and storyboard artist living in Los Angeles. Their past projects include The Owl House, Star vs. the Forces of Evil, and Gravity Falls. Their ongoing webcomic, The Glass Scientists, will be published by Penguin Randomhouse in Fall 2023. They're currently having another go at learning Japanese and they're pretty sure they can stick with it this time.

This is a voice acting performance and feedback panel. To begin, we will do some warm-up exercises. Afterwords I'll start selecting small groups from the audience to perform in front of the room. Scripts will be provided, and after each performance myself and some other panelists will give feedback. The idea behind this panel is to have mini practice rounds for the voice equestria. Not everyone gets picked, and not everyone is ready to perform next to their idles, so perhaps it would be a good opportunity to perform in front of a smaller audience.

The Design Team

As a design team, we wanted to create ideas and a world that guests to BABSCon would be able to enjoy. With so much stress and tension in the world right now, a space carnival felt a great way to bring people away from that.

—Cuttlefish

We saved a taste of the circus just for you <3 Please give it up for the incredible 2020-2022 BABSCon Design Team!

—MidPrem

Hi I'm Itssopanda, I have been doing fan content for MLP since 2014. I've been doing a lot of projects for friends over the years so if my art looks a little familiar that's why. If you like what I do check me out on twitter. Have fun!
-Itssopanda

The goal with the mascot costumes was to give each character a unique style that was colorful and playful. Team input was critical in finding the best way to make each character shine.
